Favorite Activities Elvis attends therapy sessions, family visits and spends time in the residential units providing comfort to all youth. His presence helps to immediately calm a child. When not working, Elvis loves playing catch with his favorite ball or swimming in his pool.

Elvis is a service trained dog who works as a Facility Dog at the Children's Home of Poughkeepsie. He provides comfort, unconditional acceptance, and emotional support to many children of all ages from infants to young adults. Elvis participates in therapy sessions and helps children feel safe enough to unburden and tell the stories they carry inside.
